Re: Ralph Compagnone v. MJ Licensing Company 18 cv. 06227 (ALC)(OTW)

Honorable Magistrate Judge Wang:

This undersigned represent the Plaintiff in the above referenced action.

By Your Honors prior orders Plaintiff was directed to turn over tax returns for the relevant years. As directed, Plaintiff turned over the joint tax returns and the accompanying 1099's. As Your Honor is aware, the tax returns in question are joint tax returns and contain private and confidential information of Plaintiff's spouse who is not a party to this lawsuit is not. Your Honor permitted Plaintiff to redact the spouse/non-party's social security numbers but nothing else. Pursuant to the recently So Ordered Protective Order the documents were designated Confidential.

Inasmuch as a significant if not majority of the information contained in those tax returns relates to the non-party/spouse I made a request to defense counsel that the information be designated "For Attorneys Eyes Only." He disagreed.

Based upon the information that has been turned over there is absolutely no basis for the named defendants to see or have access to the information contained in the tax documents. As such, I respectfully request that Your Honor order that the information, (Bates Stamped P110 – P367) be designated ""For Attorneys Eyes Only"" until or unless there is a Court Order changing such designation.

Respectfully submitted,
The Dweck Law Firm, LLP
